CLIMATE CHANGE: WHAT MIGHT THIS MEAN FOR THE BRUCE?

April 28-29, 2012
Parks Canada Visitor Centre
120 Chi sin tib dek Road
Tobermory, Ontario

The 4th Sources of Knowledge Forum:
Climate Change: What Might This Mean
For The Bruce? will be held on April 28th and 29th, 2012 in Tobermory, Ontario.
The Forum will bring together an eclectic panel of speakers sharing their knowledge on various aspects of one of today's most challenging subjects:
CLIMATE CHANGE.

We hope you will join us.

In addition to the plenary sessions during the day on Saturday, April 28th, there will be a dinner in the evening, 6:00 – 9:30 catered by The Green Door Café, Wiarton with guest speaker, internationally renowned Dr. Stephen Woodley. And on Sunday morning 9:00 - 11:30, April 29th, The Peninsula Transition Group will host a workshop at the Visitor Centre with interactive and collaborative activities and presentations on local projects and initiatives. In the afternoon there will be a mini Climate Change Film Festival hosted by Dr. Stephen Scharper at the Parks Canada Visitor Centre Theatre from 1:00 - 3:30. In addition, there will be exhibitor displays and an art show Changing Weather featuring Bruce Peninsula artists.
